Beverly Santicola has over 25 years of experience in management, including 16 years within the non-profit sector. She has facilitated the generation of more than $15 million dollars in grant funding over the last eight years for elementary and secondary education, health care, technology, economic development, and labor-management cooperation. Through her training workshops over the last three years she has helped participants generate at least $10 million for their charities. Since 2001 Santicola has authored more than 35 award winning grant proposals to provide breast cancer screening, diagnostics and treatment for 9,000 low-income, uninsured women in Texas. What People Say...

Our first grant proposal was turned down. Then I went to your class and tried again using the methods you taught. I'm happy to say we just got a $1.6 million dollar grant award! Thanks for your help. Janis Jarvis, Clear Creak ISD

"By the way, we received a $50,000 grant from Frost Bank last month. I am still batting 1000 using the Santicola model (4 proposals and 4 awards totaling $638,000)." Dr. James Antenen, Dean, Wayland Baptist University-SA

"Three things really impressed me: 1) the passion, 2) the professionalism, 3) the morality of it all. – Mike Hucker

I don't know if you remember helping me out with a grant I wrote about 3 months ago-but I wanted to say thank you. We received $175,000. Thank you so much for all of your help! Tricia Haddad, One by One Ministries

"Very cool." – Edward, Mrytle Beach

The presenter was interesting and excellent. The workshop content was comprehensive. The workshop included excellent resources to start looking for grants. Patricia A. Morgan, Police Officers Support Team, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
